

This module invites students to engage with current debates in African Studies by attending academic events such as public lectures, research talks, and workshops organised at the university and the cluster. Over the course of the first three semesters, students are expected to attend 13 sessions that reflect key topical issues and scholarly conversations in the field. The module provides exposure to diverse disciplinary perspectives and contemporary research. Participation is documented via this sign-up form and coordinated by the programme director.

	Attended Events (Title of Lecture, Seminar Series etc.)	Date	Signature of Host
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13			